

I am concerned that taking away national or regional radio stations would limit the listeners who now enjoy the best. I listen to a national Christian radio station - KLOVE - as do many all over the country. KLOVE supports wholesome values and offers encouragement to all. Please do not take away the opportunity for all to enjoy the family-friendly station.